Tell me about it.
Two people I spent overnights with a few times in the past three weeks have just been called by Infectious Diseases...and are now quarantined untio June 22nd. Five others are sick, awaiting test results.
Me...I'm fine. Absolutely nothing amiss. However, I'm afraid I'll be contact traced very soon, and would like to avoid being on such a list, with forced testing.
Any advice on how to avoid future being oj a list for future forced funvaxx will be apprexiates.
Can I refuse?

>Trump about to hold rallies

The second wave is inevitable. It's already started here in Oregon thanks to the protests. What many sheep won't realize is the media will spin this second wave of outbreaks, particularly in states where trump held the rallies, and tirelessly and repeatedly blame trump for putting his base at risk. Every death that comes from these rallies will be George floyd tier specific to local areas. They will convince boomer idiots within trump's base that Trump selfishly held rallies and got their meemaw and peepaw killed to promote himself.

If Trump is smart, hs will delay these rallies. Ther virus is increasing as a result of protests. Don't let them shift the blame on Trump and Trump supporters. Extra points for killing a black trump supporter from then virus after attending the rally. They're depending on these rallies to save face for telling people to go out and protest.

Anyone that can't see this is honestly fucking retarded.

They already succeeded in shaming everyone for being white, why wouldn't they succeed in shaming you into not taking the vaccine ?

When I was at Benning, I tagged along with my friends to a check cashing place. There was an older black guy ahead of us at the counter and he was wiring money, and he was sending it to the town next to my hometown, on the other side of the country. Small world, right? I chatted with him for a few; he grew up there and had family there, but had been living in Columbus since the 1980s.

They give him the form to fill out and he pushes it back across the counter and says, “I can’t read.” And he said it so casually, like he’d been saying it every day for his whole life. This is a guy who grew up in a major east coast city in the 60s or 70s, and he couldn’t read.
